

Instructor CV.

Dr. Hesham Sadek was (till April 2004) the academic dean of the New York Institute of Technology for the Middle East, and currently is the Managing Director of Integrated Education Solutions, with headquarters in Egypt and offices in Davis California and Santo Domingo in Latin America. Moreover, he has over 30 years of experience in the Academic field, Management, Budgeting project planning Development of Strategies, implementation of highest technology available in the international market and senior management at different levels with 17 years Experience in oil companies abroad (British petroleum) Furthermore, he received his MBA in 1981 from Syracuse University, New York with high honors, as well as a PhD. In 1985 in international Business Administration with high honors from Pacific Southern University, Los Angeles California.

In addition, he is a member of several professional bodies such as the American Society for Civil Engineers, International Management Association in Brussels, board of Directors of Emirates Engineering Society, Abu Dhabi, Board of directors of the American Society of petroleum Engineers covering Middle East ,Gulf, India and Pakistan, and others.

Furthermore, he has a wide experience in teaching MBA student as well as tailoring and conducting management training programs for different managerial levels at the different private organizations worldwide, among these are Organization behavior, project management, international business administration, communication's management and a number of soft skill courses.

On the top of his training experience, he has a rich professional history in management consultancy with several companies such as Property link international, GASCO, ADNOC, Shell, Total, Partex and many others. This involved setting up quality management and minor reengineering to improve performance and revenues, foundation of companies, and developing overall business strategies.